Dear colleague,

It is our pleasure to announce the thematic six-week program entitled "Gravitational waves, a new messenger to explore the universe" at the Henri Poincaré Institute (IHP) in Paris

Registration: free but mandatory

Important: the deadline for financial support requests is September 1st, 2020

The Henri Poincaré Institute can help you to find an accommodation during your stay in Paris.

A conference will be organized at IHP from March 31st to April 1st, 2021 : the meeting of the National Research Group on gravitational waves

Registration for the conference

We are looking forward to welcoming you!

The organizers: Chiara Caprini, Eric Chassande-Mottin, Guillaume Faye,
Filippo Vernizzi, Marta Volonteri.

PS: do not hesitate to spread the word and forward this e-mail to potentially interested colleagues and junior researchers including Ph.D. students and postdocs.

We can provide financial support in the limit of available funding.
